

Ownership Rule

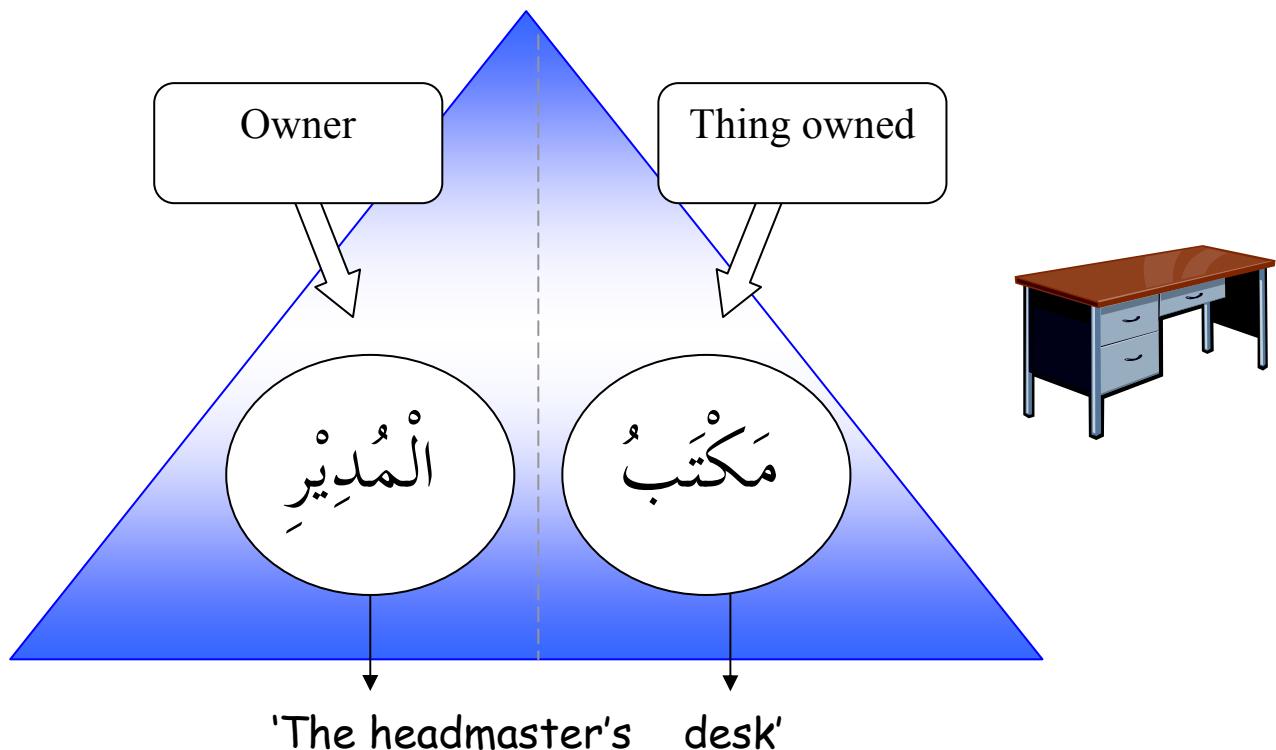

In Arabic the owner is called Mudaafun ilayhi and the thing owned is called Mudaafun.

In the example below the owner is the headmaster and the thing owned is the desk.

Do you notice how the thing owned comes first? This is opposite to how it is in the English language.

Who Takes What?

	Owner	Thing owned
ج	✓	✗
ء	✗	✗
إ	✓ Only if the word is a Diptote	✓ Only if the word is the object.
س	✗	✓
ه	✓	✗
ه	✗	✗
ه	✓	✓ Only if proceeded by a pulling word

* Look at Madinah book 1 notes for information on diptotes
